40.1 The Board considered a report of the Director of Children's Services to improve current arrangements for the planning, commissioning and provision of services that deal with domestic Violence in Brighton and Hove (for copy see minute book).

40.2 The Committee was informed that the existing funding was not sufficient to cover current activities and beyond 2008 would very much depend on the constraints on budget setting. 41.3 In relation to Appendix 1 the Committee was informed that since the report was prepared the current figures were now available and the percentage of young people 16-18 in Brighton & Hove whose current situation is 'not known' had fallen below 5% for the first time. Members were pleased with the progress being made.
