BRIGHTON & HOVE CITY COUNCIL – MEMBER DECLARATIONS

Guidance based on information supplied by the Standards Board in relation to some of the questions the Board is frequently asked about the register of personal interests

1. The local Code refers to the nominal value of shares. What is this - is it different to the market value of shares?

The nominal value of shares is the face value of those shares (the value recorded on the share certificate). For example:

You bought 10,000 £1.50 shares (face value) in 1999. The market value at the time was £3.00 each, so the total paid was £30,000. Those shares are now worth £45,000. You are required to declare the nominal value of shares held in excess of £25,000. The nominal value of those shares would be £15,000 (10,000 x £1.50). Therefore you would not be obliged to enter the shares on the register of interests, even though the current market value of the shares is £45,000. This will be the case unless the number of shares you hold represents more than one hundredth of the total issued share capital of the relevant corporate body.

2. Do I need to register all gifts and hospitality I receive?

No. You only need to register gifts and hospitality worth at least £25 that you receive in connection with your official duties as a Member. The local Code says that it does not apply to Members outside their official capacity apart from certain specified circumstances. Gifts received in a personal capacity do not fall within those circumstances, so do not need to be registered.

3. Do I need to register land that I own overseas or in parts of England outside the Council's area?

No. You only need to register land you own or in which you have a beneficial interest that is within the Council's area.
