1. Introductions and Chair's Communications

1 - 2

Introduction from the Chair of the Panel, Councillor Geoffrey Bowden.

Draft Terms of Reference for the Panel are attached.

2. Residents' comments and experiences of living near party houses

This section of the meeting is for residents to tell us their experiences of living near party houses and suggestions for how problematic issues could be addressed.

Some of the time slots are available to be pre-booked and there is additional time for residents who have not been able to book a time slot.

The City Council actively welcomes members of the public and the press to attend its meetings and holds as many of its meetings as possible in public. Provision is also made on the agendas for public questions to committees and details of how questions can be raised can be found on the website and/or on agendas for the meetings.

Agendas and minutes are published on the council's website www.brighton-hove.gov.uk. Agendas are available to view five working days prior to the meeting date.

Meeting papers can be provided, on request, in large print, in Braille, on audio tape or on disc, or translated into any other language as requested.
