

I was surprised to see intervention from Labour and Green councillors on the Lidl planning application for extended hours – this is in Hove Park as you will know.
Could I please express my support for the extended hours noting that no Hove Park residents have written to us objecting against the scheme or the variation.

Samer Bagaeen

Hove Park Ward

