

Brighton & Hove City Council

Environment, Transport & Sustainability Committee

Agenda Item 95

Subject: Labour Group Amendment

Public Space Protection Orders - barbecues, lanterns and balloons: Outcome of Public Consultation

Date of meeting: 15 March 2022

To add recommendation 2.3 and shown in bold italics as below:

- 2.3 That Committee requests officers bring a report back to a future meeting of ETS, outlining alternative provisions (such as, but not limited to; permanent communal barbecue pits), that could be provided to allow residents without gardens or outdoor spaces the opportunity to enjoy barbecues.
- 2.34 That Committee approves the updated Environmental Enforcement Framework as detailed in Appendix 2 (tracked changes version) and Appendix 3 (clean version).
- 2.45 That Committee approve the £100 fine for failure to comply with the PSPOs.
- 2.56 That Committee authorise Environmental Enforcement Officers to issue Fixed Penalty Notices for non-compliance with PSPOs in respect of the use of single-use barbecues and the release of lanterns and balloons.

Proposed by: Cllr Fowler

Seconded by: Cllr Wilkinson
