Title of question: Clearing Davey Drive Bank

Issue raised by residents:

City Parks have agreed to clear the overgrown bank and plant it with wild flowers. They cleared half the bank and covered it over but have not returned to clear the rest of the bank.

Background:

Action requested by residents:

It was agreed to raise this at the Area Panel to request the following information:

- When will City Parks return to clear the rest of the bank at the bottom of Davey Drive?

Officer Response:

The Housing team are exploring ways in which to clear the rest of the bank. Unfortunately, access is proving to be very challenging.

A verbal update will be given at the North Area Panel.
