APPENDIX A

| a) General – all four licensing objectives (b,c,d,e) (please read guidance note 9) Following a variation of the licence all staff will be re-trained in the licensing law and the conditions on the licence. b) The prevention of crime and disorder c) Public safety A review of the fire risk Assessment will be carried out taking into account the longer hours and licensable activities permitted. d) The prevention of public nuisance When recorded or live music is being played in preference to incidental music then the doors to the premise will be kept closed except for exit and entry. e) The protection of children from harm | P Describe any additional steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives as a result of the proposed variation: |
|---|--|
| b) The prevention of crime and disorder c) Public safety A review of the fire risk Assessment will be carried out taking into account the longer hours and licensable activities permitted. d) The prevention of public nuisance When recorded or live music is being played in preference to incidental music then the doors to the premise will be kept closed except for exit and entry. | a) General – all four licensing objectives (b,c,d,e) (please read guidance note 9) |
| c) Public safety A review of the fire risk Assessment will be carried out taking into account the longer hours and licensable activities permitted. d) The prevention of public nuisance When recorded or live music is being played in preference to incidental music then the doors to the premise will be kept closed except for exit and entry. e) The protection of children from harm | Following a variation of the licence all staff will be re-trained in the licensing law and the conditions on the licence. |
| c) Public safety A review of the fire risk Assessment will be carried out taking into account the longer hours and licensable activities permitted. d) The prevention of public nuisance When recorded or live music is being played in preference to incidental music then the doors to the premise will be kept closed except for exit and entry. e) The protection of children from harm | |
| c) Public safety A review of the fire risk Assessment will be carried out taking into account the longer hours and licensable activities permitted. d) The prevention of public nuisance When recorded or live music is being played in preference to incidental music then the doors to the premise will be kept closed except for exit and entry. e) The protection of children from harm | |
| c) Public safety A review of the fire risk Assessment will be carried out taking into account the longer hours and licensable activities permitted. d) The prevention of public nuisance When recorded or live music is being played in preference to incidental music then the doors to the premise will be kept closed except for exit and entry. e) The protection of children from harm | |
| A review of the fire risk Assessment will be carried out taking into account the longer hours and licensable activities permitted. d) The prevention of public nuisance When recorded or live music is being played in preference to incidental music then the doors to the premise will be kept closed except for exit and entry. e) The protection of children from harm | b) The prevention of crime and disorder |
| A review of the fire risk Assessment will be carried out taking into account the longer hours and licensable activities permitted. d) The prevention of public nuisance When recorded or live music is being played in preference to incidental music then the doors to the premise will be kept closed except for exit and entry. e) The protection of children from harm | |
| A review of the fire risk Assessment will be carried out taking into account the longer hours and licensable activities permitted. d) The prevention of public nuisance When recorded or live music is being played in preference to incidental music then the doors to the premise will be kept closed except for exit and entry. e) The protection of children from harm | |
| A review of the fire risk Assessment will be carried out taking into account the longer hours and licensable activities permitted. d) The prevention of public nuisance When recorded or live music is being played in preference to incidental music then the doors to the premise will be kept closed except for exit and entry. e) The protection of children from harm | |
| A review of the fire risk Assessment will be carried out taking into account the longer hours and licensable activities permitted. d) The prevention of public nuisance When recorded or live music is being played in preference to incidental music then the doors to the premise will be kept closed except for exit and entry. e) The protection of children from harm | |
| A review of the fire risk Assessment will be carried out taking into account the longer hours and licensable activities permitted. d) The prevention of public nuisance When recorded or live music is being played in preference to incidental music then the doors to the premise will be kept closed except for exit and entry. e) The protection of children from harm | |
| d) The prevention of public nuisance When recorded or live music is being played in preference to incidental music then the doors to the premise will be kept closed except for exit and entry. e) The protection of children from harm | |
| d) The prevention of public nuisance When recorded or live music is being played in preference to incidental music then the doors to the premise will be kept closed except for exit and entry. e) The protection of children from harm | A review of the fire risk Assessment will be carried out taking into account the longer hours and licensable activities permitted. |
| When recorded or live music is being played in preference to incidental music then the doors to the premise will be kept closed except for exit and entry. e) The protection of children from harm | |
| When recorded or live music is being played in preference to incidental music then the doors to the premise will be kept closed except for exit and entry. e) The protection of children from harm | |
| When recorded or live music is being played in preference to incidental music then the doors to the premise will be kept closed except for exit and entry. e) The protection of children from harm | |
| When recorded or live music is being played in preference to incidental music then the doors to the premise will be kept closed except for exit and entry. e) The protection of children from harm | |
| e) The protection of children from harm | |
| e) The protection of children from harm | the premise will be kept closed except for exit and entry. |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| 19 | e) The protection of children from harm |
| 19 | |
| 19 | |
| 19 | |
| 19 | |
| | 19 |