Overview and Scrutiny Commission, Brighton & Hove City Council, Kings House, Grand Avenue
Hove BN3 2LS.

3rd March 2011

Dear Sir/Madam

Public Consultation - Request for a Scrutiny Panel

We are writing to you to express our concern regarding public consultation in Brighton and Hove.

also in BHCC's own Community Engagement Framework, however, local practice often falls short of the guidelines and aspirations set out in these documents. It sometimes appears that BHCC is merely paying lip service to community engagement. There are clear guidelines established in the government's Code of Practice for Public Consultations, exhibitions, biased and silly questionnaires. Too often questionnaires purporting to be 'consultation' are merely 'information'. Consultation exercises are sometimes poorly carried out - eg. late notice, poorly presented even in cases where a majority of residents are in strong agreement, their views are sometimes views of individual residents cannot predominate and a compromise must be reached. However, We appreciate that in some cases there might be a huge range of comments received, and that the developer consultation is that people feel that if they have objected at this stage there is no need to there is no monitoring of the consultation, nor whether the results are acted upon. The danger with In the case of large construction projects, the developers are required to carry out consultation, but register their objection with the Council, who are then not aware of it.

designed and fair, and that the results are sent to the Council, and published afterwards In order for consultation exercises to be meaningful and effective, it is vital that they are well-budgets & cost-benefit issues, gathering evidence to find examples of best and worst practice, and and Hove, in order to assess, monitor and improve the situation, taking into account quality, requesting that a Scrutiny Panel be set up by the Council, to look into public consultation in Brighton We, the undersigned, are of the opinion that a Scrutiny Panel is the way forward. We are therefore the next meeting to produce a report, to be given to all Councillors. We request that this be added to the agenda at earliest convenience We hope you will be in agreement with our proposal, and look forward to hearing from you at your

Yours sincerely,

Corinne Attwood Brighton Society

Graham Towers

Montpelier & Clifton Hill

Association

Sandy Crowhurst
North Laine Community
Association

Roger Hinton Regency Square Area Society

Councillors Bennett, Cobb, Elgood, Kennedy, Meadows, Morgan, Older, Peltzer-Dunn, Wakefield-Jarrett Distribution: Chairman, Councillor Gill Mitchell; Deputy Chairman, Councillor Brian Pidgeon;