“Executive Leadership Team” means the Team consisting of the Chief Officers.

“Corporate Landlord” means the model adopted by the council under which the council’s property assets are managed with the aim of bringing together all property functions (except for operational service issues) under Property & Design to improve the utilisation, efficiency and effectiveness of the council’s land & buildings.

3. The functions of the council specified in Part A of this Scheme are delegated to the Chief Officers in relation to their areas of responsibility (and subject to the Corporate Landlord model).
4. The functions of the Council specified in Part B of this Scheme are delegated to the officer/s described therein.
5. The functions delegated under this Scheme of Delegation shall be subject to the Council’s standing orders, financial regulations, policies and procedures and to any instruction or guidance of the Council or the appropriate Committee or Sub-Committee acting under its delegated powers.
6. Except in relation to any statutory function vested directly in the officer concerned, each officer shall, in exercising his/her delegated functions, comply with any instructions of the Chief Executive. The Chief Executive is authorised to rule on any questions arising under this scheme including the extent to which any function is delegated.
7. Where a function is delegated to an officer, he/she may authorise the carrying out of that function, in his/her name, by other officers within his/her department, directorate, team, unit or section (or such other officers as report to him/her directly or indirectly) either fully or under the general supervision and control of the authorising officer. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, such authorisation may include authorisation to issue and sign statutory notices in the name of the relevant officer or any other person with delegated functions.

8. All such matters as may be regarded as included by inference shall be comprised within the delegated functions of officers; and any delegation to an officer shall include all consequential or ancillary matters as necessary. For example, where the exercise of a function has been delegated, it shall include, subject to any express reservations in this scheme, the power to serve notices or orders, authorise agreements, authorise proceedings or fix or vary fees and charges.
9. The delegations in Parts A and B of this Scheme shall be complementary and any delegations to particular officers in Part B shall be without prejudice to the generality of the functions delegated in Part A. The functions delegated under this Scheme are in addition to and without prejudice to any powers or authorisations under other parts of the constitution.
10. The delegations contained in parts A and B of the scheme of delegations are without prejudice to any powers delegated to Officers in relation to specific matters by a resolution of the appropriate committee or sub-committee and such delegations shall be deemed to subsist notwithstanding the lack of reference to them in this scheme of delegations unless the delegation is of a limited duration and has expired or is expressly or by clear implication revoked by a subsequent resolution of a body with the power to revoke the delegations.
11. Where a function is delegated to more than one officer, any one of those officers may exercise it, but such function shall be exercised in accordance with any direction given by the Chief Executive.
12. Where under this Scheme an officer is authorised to discharge a particular function, he/she shall not be precluded from placing the matter before the relevant Committee or Sub-Committee for consideration as the officer considers appropriate.
